

Spring Break (March 23 – 27, 2020)
Fee-Based Camps for Students at Broward County Public Schools Sites

In preparation for spring break each year, Broward County Public Schools establishes several fee-based child care spring break camps at District school facilities. These programs are operated by both private child care companies and BCPS staff at various school site locations.

The programs operate from March 23 – 27, 2020, from 7 a.m. – 6 p.m. These are fee-based programs and are managed by each of the companies defined in the list below. These child care spring break camps all meet the criteria to provide child care programs in our schools. Each site will have security and provide food service as a part of the full-day program.
