VI. Old Business

Ms. Smith brought the utility bill insert from November. Vice Chair Shaw thought the post about collecting memorabilia was ongoing each month.

Deputy City Clerk Girard explained the city placed current information in the monthly inserts, such as programs and registrations.

The board discussed different ways to get residents to bring in memorabilia. Ms. Clough-Robinson suggested asking neighbors.

Ms. Smith said she would ask her condo association about it at their next meeting. Maybe they could put up a sign about it in the common areas.

Ms. Males asked if the ad was still running in the Laker magazine. Ms. Girard said she believed the city paid for the ad for a one time run.

Mr. Shaw asked Mr. Howell about posting it in their clubhouse. Mr. Howell said there was a Rec Board meeting this week and he would discuss it.

Ms. Clough-Robinson said she received emails from the Mayor all the time with current information. Other members said they receive emails from the Mayor and Commissioners frequently with information, and they suggested including the search for memorabilia information some of these emails. Ms. Girard will check on it.

The board members sorted and indexed several boxes of memorabilia.

VII. New Business.

The board discussed reappointments for 2023, some had not heard anything. Ms. Girard said as the Mayor and Commissioners advise the City Clerk's Office of their appointments, the board members were contacted. All appointments were not yet received.

Philip Howell said because the opening of the new city hall was getting closer, perhaps they could invite the people who made the original presentation back to discuss the progress on the museum. Ms. Girard said she would reach out after the holidays.

VIII. Adjournment:
