E. A motion to approve the minutes from May 1, 2023, Law Enforcement Review and Advisory Board meeting were carried out without board opposition by Debbie Banner, agreed by Jerome DiGirolamo, and seconded by Linda Agnew.

F. Old Business

- a. Gary Gordon requested to revisit a case from our meeting on April 3, 2023: 42-2301-001222. Mr. Gordon originally stated there was a use of unnecessary force by the officers and asked to reopen the case. However, after reviewing the case and meeting with Sergeant Reardon, Mr. Gordon agrees that officers followed procedure and policy. Board members expressed that officers should show restraint when dealing with the public and the perception of policing, retraining officers about the concept of de-escalation.

G. New Business

Response to Resistance

- 42-2302-005893

The officer followed policies and procedures.

Internal Affairs

- 22-11-01

Discussed the temperament it takes to work in the SRO position and be an officer around children. Board members discussed body cameras should be on, the assessment of children via trauma or mental health.
