Response to Resistance

- 42-2303-011762

Board members questioned the verbal dialogue from the sergeant while the suspect was handcuffed. Internal Affairs mentioned to the board that they already addressed the sergeant involved and recommended de-escalation training. Board members agreed with the outcome.

Board members commended the officer who apologized to the store clerk.

Internal Affairs

- 22-12-01

The officer should have de-escalated the situation and believed the tickets that were given were vindictive (mainly the ticket regarding insurance registration). The communication between the officer and the female broke down and could have resulted in a different way if the officer approached things differently. Board members agreed with the outcome.

- 22-12-02

The board members commended the officers for their professionalism and they followed policy and procedures. The board member mentioned her response could have been different if a trained professional showed up on the scene. Board members agreed with the outcome.

- 23-02

The board members believed the final disposition was fair.

- 23-03

The board members believed the final disposition was fair.
