Heart-Healthy Steps for Better Living

The Sunrise City Commission proclaimed February 2024 as American Heart Month in Sunrise. These tips from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) can help you start your journey to a healthier heart:

Manage Your Risk Factors

Keep your blood pressure, cholesterol and blood sugar in a healthy range to help prevent heart disease and stroke.

Work with Health Care Professionals

Build a health care team you can trust to help take care of your heart.

Eat Healthy

Create healthy eating habits that work for you. Even small changes to your diet can make a big difference to your heart health.

Get Active

Take small steps toward being more active to get big health benefits over time.

Lower Stress

Find healthy ways to manage stress to lower your risk of health problems and help you feel your best.

Quit Smoking

Quitting smoking isn't easy—but it's worth the effort. It's never too late to quit and enjoy the benefits of a smoke-free life.
