New Business

Summer Camp Registration Update- Cierra Braaf, Recreation Leader representing the Youth Programs Division, spoke to changes in the Summer Camp registration process. Replacing the camp registration lottery system, a one day, in-person registration for Sunrise residents will take place starting at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 20th at the Sunrise Civic Center. Registrations will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. The new age range for campers is ages 6 thru 14. Due to staff shortages last year, the City was unable to meet the demand for camp. It is hoped that recent wage increases will attract the needed staff.

Good of the Order

Todd Shipley shared that he attended the City of Plantation's version of the Tunes & Trucks and was disappointed that the band played a lot of unfamiliar songs. Kevin Pickard added that our staff instructs the bands at our City's events to play popular songs to keep the crowd engaged.

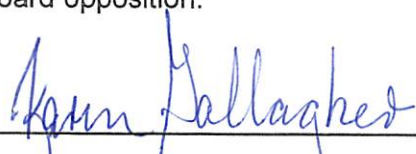

Lorelei Boyden shared that she attended the City's Strategic Planning meeting and it was very interesting and the moderator did a great job, making it a positive experience.

Danny Perez shared that a friend recently attended a chess tournament at Piper High School and was impressed to learn that the City of Sunrise was at the forefront of the chess popularity in the area. Mr. Perez asked about having an Athletics update at an upcoming meeting. He expressed his appreciation for the Staff Reports.

Adjournment

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Todd Shipley and seconded by Tonya Nolen Williams. Motion carried without board opposition.
